Yes, the program requires all trainees to comply with the policies and practice in the trainee manual, and postdoctoral manual and program eligibility requirements are available at this link: https://www.chc1.com/what-we-do/training-the-next-generation/postdoctoral-psychology-residency-program/how-to-apply-2/ The manuals are under the header Postdoctoral Residency Program Policies and Procedures.

Postdoctoral Program Admissions

Briefly describe in narrative form important information to assist potential applicants in assessing their likely fit with your program. This description must be consistent with the program's policies on intern selection and practicum and academic preparation requirements:

Applicants must complete their doctoral academic coursework at an APA accredited graduate program. To be considered for the residency program all requirements for the doctoral degree must be completed before starting the postdoctoral training program and an internship that is APA accredited or one that meets APPIC standards. These requirements will be verified by CHC staff.

Describe any other required minimum criteria used to screen applicants:
